

I support the petition. I hold an amateur extra class license and I held a first class radiotelephone license and a second class radio telegraph license with radar endorsement. I was first licensed in 1961 and had a hard time learning the code, but it was worth the time and effort it took. Things that are too easy have no value. The 27 MHz citizens band shows that, clearly.